Barium Messenger

Vol. 24 BARIUM SPRINGS, N. C., DECEMBER 1946 No. 2

Deceased

MRS. S. A. GRIER

The angels came and took her home. With the setting of the sun she went from us into the presence of her Savior.

On December 1, 1916, Mr. and Mrs. Grier came to live at Barium and since that day many, many boys and girls have found in them the sweet forbearance and understanding and strength that seemed lost to them with the loss of their own parents.

Her own went in infancy to be with that holy, happy band of children around the throne of God in heaven, and so Mrs. Grier gave a mother's love unstintingly and without bitterness to the children of others. For many years she was the beloved teacher of the beginners in Sunday School. To her neighbors, the babies and the little girls at Howard Cottage, she was a ray of sunshine passing by and going in and out amongst them, never too hurried to listen to their small troubles or to be happy with them in their triumphs.

To the older boys and girls she was an ideal of unselfishness and Christian faith. Her greatest joy was their trust and confidence, and many of us can recall how her interest and sympathy stood by us through the difficult times. Mrs.

Our Christmas Tree

This story has to be written just before the event happens. Reporters do this lots of times without admitting it. We are admitting it but we know we are going to have such a big time that it won't hurt to tell the story before it happens.

On Wednesday night, December 18th, Barium Springs will have her big "Give-to" Christmas tree. The affair will start at six o'clock. All of the children of the Orphanage and of the neighborhood will be present. We will eat a little, sing a lot, and do a lot. When the affair starts there will be a Christmas tree in the middle of the dining room with no decoration whatever on it. There will be a bowl on a table and a box full of decorations - that's at the beginning of the meal. An hour later the tree will be highly decorated with some four hundred decorations. The box of decorations will be empty. The bowl will be pretty full of contributions. We will sing Christmas carols and just have a whopping big time. As each child leaves the dining room he will have a bag of apples, nuts and candy, - just a foretaste of the good things ahead for the next ten days, and they will also have a nice warm feeling in their hearts in having done something for other people first before enjoying the many things which people do for us.

The gift this year is going to the Home for the Aged - that new cause which the Presbyterian Church so heartily endorsed at the last meeting of the Synod. We hope that the people receiving money for this cause will be the busiest people in North Carolina during these Christmas days.

There are many people anxious about this enterprise. They are wondering if this home can be built in time to help them. They are people who just a few years ago were vigorous, helpful people who helped all of our church causes to function. Now they need help and time is running out on some of them. It is the prayers of every contributor to our "Give-to" Christmas tree that our mites may be added to the dollars to quickly furnish a haven

Pastor's Paragraph

By Rev. F. B. Benton

"I BELIEVE IN JESUS CHRIST"

This article is being written at the beginning of the Christmas season, and certainly there could be no fitter subject than the second article of our Apostles' Creed. Last month we thought together of the first article, "I believe in God the Father Almighty", and now we come to the statement of that which Christians believe about Christ. It is the longest and most important section of the Creed. "I believe in - Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost; born of the Virgin Mary; suffered under Pontius Pilate; was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven; and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead." This section of the Creed emphasizes both the divinity and the humanity of Christ and presents Him to us as our Lord and Savior.

The opening words, "Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord", present to us a livine Being. He is God's Son in a way that no mere man could ever be. The human mind can never understand the mystery of the Trinity, but someone has given us a picture of the division of work among the three Persons which is helpful. The great work of God is the work of salvation. The Father is the architect who conceived the plan, and the Son is the contractor who actually builds the structure. He is the executor of the plan of God for our salvation.

Christ is also our Lord. The dictionary defines "Lord" as "one who has power and authority, a master, proprietor, ruler". And when we use the Creed we own Christ as all these things to us. We belong to Him, for "you are not your own; you were bought with a price". And that price was His own precious blood. Christ is our Lord and also the Lord of all creation. He is our King and the King of the universe whom the Father

Winter Sports

The last issue of the Messenger told the story of our football season up through the Statesville game, and all that remains to be told in this issue is the story of the final varsity game and four midget games and then the biggest event of all - the banquet.

First about the varsity windup. This final game was played on Thanksgiving Day at Barium. Thomasville was the team furnishing the opposition and some of you may remember that it was Thomasville who spoiled the end of our season last year. Last year we were leading Thomasville by one point until the last few minutes of the game when they scored. This year our team started out like they were meaning business and scored two touchdowns in the first half, but did not complete the point after

In Lieu of Cross Word Puzzle

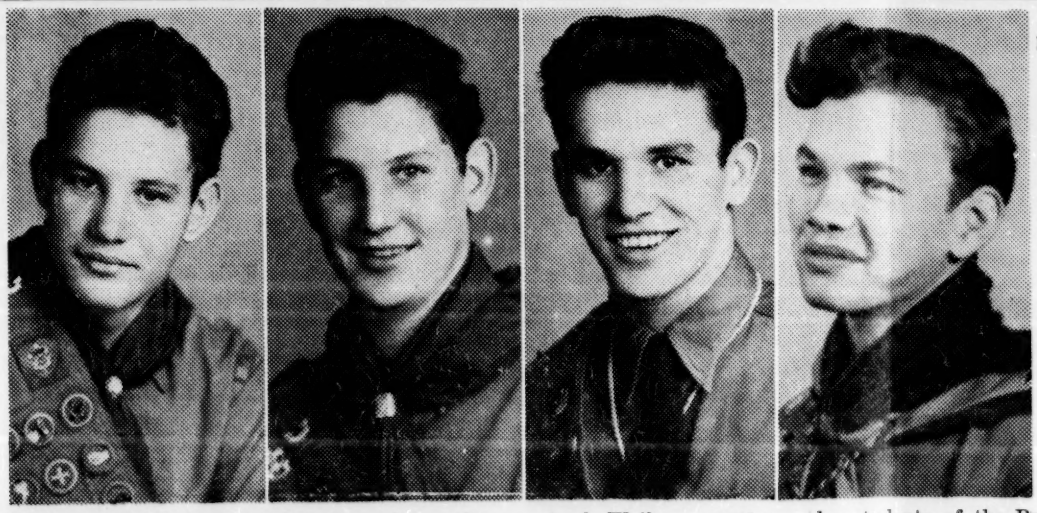
Some papers have a crossword puzzle in every issue: sometimes it is the most interesting part of the publication. We have not adopted that particular policy but we do occasionally like to publish a puzzler - something to interest old-timers particularly. Today in this issue we are publishing a picture of the 2nd grade of 1928 and the graduating class of 1937. There are four boys and three girls who appear in both pictures. In the fourth grade picture, front row, there is a fighter pilot who earned a good many decorations; a captain in the Army; an officer in the Navy; and practically all of the entire row are G. I's.

In the second row there is a bombardier who was shot down over enemy territory but got back in less than a day - his wife is also in that row. In the top row there are four soldiers and among the girls there is a nurse who saw overseas duty; a Marine; and a WAVE, and in the whole picture there are two widows who lost their husbands in the war.

In the picture of the graduating class every boy in the picture except one saw service. One was killed. Of the girls all are married except one, and four of them married their Barium sweethearts, but none of their husbands are in this picture. Of the boys all are married except two, and one of these married his Barium sweetheart. Now you guess the names, and let's see how nearly right you are.

Check your guess with answers on page two.

Given Scouting's Highest Award — The Eagle Badge



Barium Springs is not a large high school. Sometimes we run as high as 115 students, then sometimes as low as 70. We are down on the low end right now, and that makes this story all the more unusual.

It is a rare thing when a Boy Scout receives the Eagle Award and becomes an Eagle Scout. It is something for the boy to remember all his life and something for his community to be proud of. Well, on Friday, December 6th, there were three students of the Barium High School who received this Eagle Award. The ceremonies were held at Barium Springs in the high school auditorium. The boys did not all belong to the same Scout Troop. Dwight Spencer, a senior at Barium, was a member of the Barium Troop, Reverend F. B. Benton, Scoutmaster. Buddy and Ricky Lippard are also students of the Barium High School but are members of the Troutman Boy Scouts and they were the other two who received this award.

There was a Statesville boy, Duke Fowler, making four altogether to be honored and to honor our community on that occasion.

NEWS FROM SOME OF THE COTTAGES

LEES COTTAGE

We are all looking forward to Christmas and we know Santa will be good to us for we have so many friends.

We have been picking up apples but we don't have to go out to work to-day - so we will get to play until supper time.

Miss Ford is going home for the week-end and one of the big boys, W. A. Johnson is going to stay with us.

We have raked up 595 sacks of leaves and there is plenty more on the campus.

We had the football banquet last Thursday night and we had a good time.

Wishing every one a Merry Christmas.

— Lees Boys

ANNIE LOUISE COTTAGE

Are all of our friends being good so Santa will come to see you? We have been being especially good for about a month now in hopes that he won't forget us.

The 18th of this month we are going to have a Christmas party in the dining room. We all plan to give a little present so that we can have a part in the present that the Orphanage gives to the Home for the aged ministers and their wives.

Three more of our girls have recited the Child's Catechism. They are Shirley Anne Hollifield, Betty Jean Johnson, and Evelyne Cox.

We are still enjoying the nice candy that our friends in Mooresville and Belmont sent to us. We surely do appreciate the kindness of them to us.

Guess Santa is making out his list and "checking it twice" and we here at Barium hope that he remembers each and everyone of you!

Merry Christmas!

— The Annie Louise Girls

INFIRMARY

Here we are bringing you the news of our cottage again. Since Christmas isn't far off we have quite a bit of news.

We are all excited about Christmas and we wish to thank all of our friends who always manage to help us have a Merry Christmas.

We are all sorry about Mrs. Grier's death and we all want to sympathize with Mr. Grier.

Louise Harwell had a visit from her father and sister last week. Mrs. McNatt our matron also had a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Charles McNatt.

We had a grand Thanksgiving. The turkey dinner we had sure was good. We wish you could have been here to eat dinner with us.

We had a swell football season this year and we wish to thank the ones who so kindly volunteered to carry us to games away from home. We wish to thank Davidson College for inviting us to come to most of their home games. We sure did enjoy it boys.

Basketball season has now started and we are all looking forward to a grand season. Come on boys and girls.

We haven't had many patients lately. We only have three in bed at the time.

It is very nice to have Mrs. Holton on the campus now.

We wish all of you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

has set upon His throne.

The next words in this article of the Creed emphasize how Christ became man. They recognize His preexistence, for as Brother Bryan of Birmingham used to say, "He was the only man who ever lived before he was born". The eternal Son of God became man, not by natural generation, but through the work and power of the Holy Spirit in the Virgin Mary. His miraculous birth fulfilled the prophecies given long before to enable men to recognize Him, and kept Him free from the guilt of Adam which corrupts all born in ordinary manner. His being born as a baby, weak and helpless, was meant to show the complete humanity which He assumed. The eternal Son of God, a complete divine Being, added to His divinity a complete humanity and thus became God and man in one person for our salvation.

The Creed is too brief to carry a statement of Christ's life for our example, but goes directly to His death in accomplishment of the chief work which He came to do. He "suffered under Pontius Pilate"; and in those words we hear again the prophecy of Isaiah, "He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon Him; and with His stripes we are healed". But even more -- He was "crucified, dead, and buried". Unbelievers have made every effort to prove that Christ did not really die, but this statement emphasizes that His death was as real and complete as human death can be. Though sinless, He took our sins upon Himself and paid the penalty which God demands for every sin. And by bearing our sin He became the means of our forgiveness and reconciliation to God. Being complete man He could represent us, and being complete God He was a worthy sacrifice. Here is the very core of the Christian's belief about Christ.

But our belief in Christ does not end with His death. "The third day He rose again from the dead." That is the final proof of His Messiahship and divinity; and there is our assurance that the penalty for sin has been paid in full. Death, sin's consequence, has been conquered. Believers are assurred of deliverance from its clutches through Christ.

And Christ is alive forevermore. "He ascended into heaven." Heaven is not the dwelling place of the dead, but of the living. The ascension was the final consummation of the glory of Christ and the final mark of His love, for He has said, "I go to prepare a place for you." In heaven He sits today at the right hand of the Father, having carried humanity to the very throne of the universe. There His wounds make constant intercession for us and give assurance that He will be heard for our salvation.

The last part of this article of the Creed concerns the work of Christ at the end of the world: "From thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead". We today have little to say on the subject of a final judgement, but the Creed is clear. Judgement will come to all, and the same Christ who offers Himself as Savior will then judge every man. On that day those who have accepted Him will hear His "Come, thou blessed of my Father, and inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world". And on that day those who have rejected Him will find themselves rejected. Then the Son having put all enemies under His feet, He shall reign forever and ever. Then every kingly prophecy concerning Him will be fulfilled.

The Apostles' Creed thus gives us a strong statement of the essential Christian beliefs about Him who is Head of the church and Savior of all who call upon Him. It allows us to disagree upon many such minor points as the mode of His baptism, the manner in which He worked His miracles, and the various theories as to how His death accomplished its saving work. But the essentials which it does give are those upon which all Christians must agree. The Creed is still as good a test of a man's Christianity as it was in the first century. All who can say sincerely, "I believe in Jesus Christ - ", can be welcomed into the family of Christians as brothers.

Grier loved the laughter and the happiness of youth and was never impatient with its mistakes.

To the adult members of her Barium family she was esteemed co-worker, trusted friend and confidante, and unparalleled example of life spent joyously and unselfishly. Mrs. Grier will be sorely missed in the local auxiliary in which she served faithfully in various offices. In 1942 the women of Little Joe's Church delighted to honor her with life membership in the Woman's Auxiliary.

Our first overwhelming grief is soothed when we think how our dear Mrs. Grier was spared pain and suffering and passed, as it were by a single step, from this life to life everlasting. There is an aching emptiness in our earthly day, but in our hearts a sweet peace, and in the heavenly home another dear one safe and well.

touchdown in either case. One of those touchdowns, by the way, was made by a 65-yard run by Jack Clark. It was a beauty. It seemed that somebody stepped on one of Jack's toes early in the game and as it turned out it was broken, but he did not know anything about this when he started on that run and he made that run with just nine working toes. There is no telling what that boy could do with a couple of more broken toes. Anyhow he went ahead and finished the game in fairly good shape, but the next day his foot was a mess. Our boys thought that the game was sewed up at the half but Thomasville didn't think so and they came back in the second half and clearly outplayed Barium scoring 7 points and threatening again, but the final score ended 12-7 in favor of Barium which gives us three conference wins and four losses and puts us at the head of the second division of the conference.

While the varsity was finishing up this last chore the midgets on Tuesday Nov. 26 journeyed to Morganton - the 100-pounders and played a grand game there defeating Morganton 21-0. Then on the 29th they took on a brand new team from Davidson. This team did not have very much equipment and it had to borrow a good many helmets from us but they knew their football and played on even terms with Barium during the entire first half. In the second half, however, Barium really got serious and ran up 21 points. The final score was Barium 21 - Davidson 0. In the return game on Wednesday, December 4th, Barium defeated Davidson 7-0. This game was played on Richardson field and a good many Davidson students came out to get their final football meal - they seemed to enjoy the game.

The Jackson Training School 100-pounders came over on Thursday, November 21st, and the final score was Barium 12 - Jackson Training School 6. Jackson Training School's team has one boy on it who is mighty hard to stop; when he really put his mind on it the Barium team could not stop him and that is the reason why they scored 6 points. All in all, our midgets season was enjoyable. We started off slow but ended up good.

On Thursday night, December 5th, we had our football banquet. Mr. Calhoun presided and that means that it had to be good. The meal was different and the guests were different. For the first time in a number of years no outside guests were invited - just 160 football players and friends right here at Barium. A home raised Barium hog furnished the barbecue meal with a little ice cream and cake to top it off. Letters were awarded as follows:

85 LB. TEAM (B. S.)

Mr. Benton, pastor of Little Joe's Church, who helped so much in training our teams and helping to boost them along presented the 85-pound letters; Mr. Barkley presented the 100-pound letters; Mr. Jackins presented the J. V.'s which was a combination of 125 pounders and B teamers and Mr. J. B. Johnston the varsity letters.

Earl Allen was elected the team captain and was also voted the best tackler. Jerry Young was voted the best blocker. Dwight Spencer was voted the most valuable player.

Our Banquet was moved up to Thursday night to leave Friday night clear for the Scout Court of Honor. You will read about that elsewhere in this paper. That, of course, winds up this year's football schedule but it does not end the duties of those who have to do with football - schedule meetings and such.

On Thursday, December 12th, the coaches and principals of the South Piedmont Conference met at Barium Springs. All afternoon and in to the night they chewed the rag and chewed apples, taking time off at six to chew some more durable rations in the Barium dining room, and when it was all over they had selected their all-conference team, which is as follows:

Ends — Klutz, Concord; Angell, Children's Home.

Tackles — Walsen, Lexington; King, Children's Home.

Guards — Alexander, Mooresville (Captain); Allen, Barium.

Center — Bowles, Mooresville;

Back — Thompson, Albemarle; Singleton, Mooresville; Poole, Children's Home; Lefler, Albemarle.

You will note that a Barium boy is on this team for his second year. We received a new member into the conference and reinstated an old one. North Wilkesboro was the new member; Mills Home was the old one. Schedules were arranged in football, basketball, and baseball, and here is Barium's football schedule for next fall;

Sept. 19th — Mooresville at Barium.

Sept. 26th — Morganton at Morganton.
